"THEOCRAZY" FOR THIRD-PARTY NAME

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12.-To Senator Dixon, manager of the Roosevelt campaign ,has been sent an open letter by W. C. Sullivan, a member of the local bar, suggesting a name for the third party, which is to meet in convention next month at Chicago.

The letter says:
"Understanding that you are experiencing some difficulty in selecting a name for the Roosevelt cohorts to meet in Chicago next month, assuming that you wish to choose the most appropriate designation for them, and realizing that the one bond which unites them, from Mr. Roosevelt himself to his humblest follower, is the fact that they are all crazy about him, I respectfully suggest the name "Theocrazy."
